

by Edna Ferber and George S. Kaufman

Heroine Terry Randall and a group of aspiring young actresses flock to the bright lights of the Broadway stage like moths to a flame. This divine story about searching for fame, fortune, and a life on the stage was a classic Hollywood film starring Katharine Hepburn, Ginger Rogers and Lucille Ball. This sassy love letter to the magic of theatre is full of memorable characters, spunk, spirit and wit.

by Reginald Rose, adapted for the stage by Sherman Segal
 One of the most compelling dramas ever presented on stage, screen or television makes its way to The Playhouse. At the end of closing arguments in a family murder case, a jury of ordinary citizens deliberates the fate of one man and whether he should live or die. A unanimous vote is blocked when one juror starts to question the evidence, forcing the other jurors to look past their prejudices and notions of justice to exact the proper verdict.

By Philip Grecian. Based on the motion picture A Christmas Story, © 1983 Turner Entertainment Co., distributed by Warner Bros., written by Jean Shepherd, Leigh Brown and Bob Clark; and on the book In God We Trust, All Others Pay Cash by Jean Shepherd.

"You'll shoot your eye out!" That's all that young Ralpie hears when he makes his Christmas wishes known to Santa by putting an official Red Ryder BB gun on the top of the list. This stage adaptation of one of the most beloved Christmas films of all time is a joyful celebration of growing up in the Midwest that the whole family will love. This year, the light of Christmas will shine brightly from a lamp shaped like a woman's leg in fishnet stockings!

book and lyrics by Fred Alley, music by James Kaplan, story by Fred Alley and James Kaplan

From the creators of GUYS ON ICE, comes a fresh and frisky musical with loads of heart and good clean fun. There's a "no woman" policy at the Haywire Lumber Camp in Northern Wisconsin. What do you do with a rule like that when a mail order bride is on her way to camp? Sing, dance and think about taking a bath, of course!

For the Pazinski family, the 1950s were years of prosperity, hope and chasing dreams. But dealing with wise-cracking Rudy, a precocious 12-year-old who wants to shop around for a more "fun" religion rather than keeping the faith with Sister Clarissa, his knuckle-rapping nemesis, may be more than they can handle. This hilarious look at growing up in the good old days is a smart and fun look at what it means to be a member of a family.

book by Neil Simon, music by Marvin Hamlisch, lyrics by David Zippel

Neil Simon's hit film soars to life in this musical adaptation by the author with tunes from musical master Marvin Hamlisch. Paula is a single mother trying to keep her dance career on track while raising her teenage daughter and paying the rent. When an arrogant actor named Eliot Garfield shows up on her front step with a lease to her apartment, sparks fly and hearts collide. THE GOODBYE GIRL fills the stage with tuneful songs and crackling humor that make it a contemporary classic.

The author of LEND ME A TENOR, MOON OVER BUFFALO and LEADING LADIES is back with a loving tribute to the great farces of the 1930s and 1940s. Recalling the madcap antics of a Marx Brothers film, the snooty members of a high-brow country club learn to duck and cover from some misshapen mayhem. Love, life and the pursuit of golf are on tap for this bouncy comic romp.

How To Succeed In Business Without Really Trying

book by Abe Burrows, Jack Weinstock and Willie Gilbert, music and lyrics by Frank Loesser, based on How To Succeed In Business Without Really Trying by Shepherd Mead

Long before MAD MEN, there was another story of power, sex, ambition, greed...but this one has a better back-beat. J. Pierrepont Finch climbs the corporate ladder by stepping off the ledge from his window-washing job and into the high-powered offices of a company he plans to run in a matter of days. He'll do it by following the rules of a "how-to" manual, breaking some hearts and stepping on some toes along the way. Showstopping songs and dazzling dance numbers are at the heart of this classic big-time Broadway musical.
